The site is in 40+ languages.

Over 80,000 people a day
come to the site

from every country of the world.

“Closed countries” has become an outdated term.

The more people who come to the site,
the more who receive Christ.

Over 1,000 people
every day,
tell us they asked Jesus
into their lives,
while on the site.

Patrick - Doing enough drugs just so he could get through the day without killing himself.

“I went to my computer and googled ‘starting a new life with god.’ No idea why that phrase, but it led me to your site. What I read made the most perfect sense. In a life trampled by confusion, it seemed to offer the most ridiculously obvious clarity I have ever imagined.

You have offered me a gift which has changed my life.
I feel indebted to you for making the information available in a way a complete novice like me could understand. ”

is a safe place for them to explore...
who God is,
what it might be like to know God.

...the articles and videos address

real questions

people have about life and God.

When I got to your site and saw the list of articles, it freaked me out. Every single question I had, it was all right there. I read through the whole site.

I read about how to become a Christian. So I just prayed, “Yeah, what it says on the screen, God, I want that, I want to know You.”

A woman wrote in her blog

“...the funniest thing happened when I read the first paragraph of the article...I wanted to read the next...and when I did...I wanted to read the next, and the next.

(you should all look at this article:

<http://www.evervstudent.com/features/isthere.html>)

Something made me want to believe again. I mean Believe.

Just reading the intro to the article gave me a new-found respect for Christian Thought. I'd been looking for a reason not to be disgusted by Christians I didn't know.

I've taken another step closer. I read that article, and I saw God coming to me from a place outside myself, that is, revealing Himself to me from the actions of others. The faith I had that He existed was suddenly renewed.”

How this can help you!

In Austin with 50 believers

“I love Jesus but every time I try to talk to someone about Him, I feel like I’m stumbling through some sort of sales pitch, trying to convince someone of something.”

“Man, can I relate and hence, why I almost never broach the topic.”

“I wrote in my journal to Jesus
two weeks ago,

‘I’m sorry that I hate evangelism so much. Can you please fix this?’”

We need to change
our approach,
so it fits our culture
and feels normal.

This is how we do life
now.

They already have it
with them.

You just have to tell them
where to look.

When people have questions
about God,
many don't want a debate or an intimate conversation about it.

Many are not sure what they believe;

too embarrassed to tell you their questions.

Nonbelievers are not going to be open with you about what they're thinking.

Example: Me

Example:

Born-Again Pagan

Online is comfortable. Safe. They are in control.
No one is challenging them.
Defenses can come down. They can be honest.

It's the perfect environment for God to speak to them.

*“If your God exists,
I wonder if he would care about me.
I’ve done some pretty stupid stuff in my life.
My thoughts are that he would look my way in disdain and complete and utter disappointment.”*

We need to adjust,
to offer our message in a way that people want to receive it.

Here's how...

Conversations
about God
that are comfortable
for both you and them.

What nonbelievers
really want to know.

*“On a daily basis,
what does your faith do
for you?”*

Why are you glad you believe in God?”

God is personal.

Everyone has their own,
unique relationship with God.

What do YOU know to be true about God?

This becomes your life message.

Example...

DOUBLE TREE HOTEL

I'm wondering if anyone has ever shared with you how you could know God
like that?

May I give you a website that will show you how you can begin a relationship with God?

15-second testimony

Felix - life seemed great on outside...

“but deep down I was breaking into pieces. Life was becoming harder and harder. Countless sexual partners, lots of lies. Sometimes I would just sit alone and cry. My life was a mess.

Then one day I was on the internet looking for something that can give my life meaning and I came across your website.

You introduced God to me in a magnificent way. It has transformed my life. I breathed fresh air, liberation and freedom. I no longer look for someone to understand me, I now know who I am.”

How this multiplies.

People share what has an impact in their life.

You might talk to one person, but it spreads to many.

And it's easy to share.

Written by a former atheist, here's a 7-part email series. Many atheists have said it proved God's existence for them. Here's a description of what's in it and how to get it. It's free.

Summary - -

Christians in your church can:

- use this in short conversations
 - share a link in a text, email
 - share it in social media

Offering a website is low risk, leaves the other person in control,
respects their privacy,
helps them.

“Thank you so much.”

What if people receive Christ?

You lead someone to Christ,
and say...

“Let’s get together in a few days, because I have some really important information to share with you.”

They're thinking... "Drive, to meet you, in order to get some information?"

“Can’t you just text me a link?”

Yes, you can!

...and hopefully still meet with them.

Starting With God

Congratulations on your decision to ask Jesus Christ into your life.

What now?

- If this were a religion, you could expect someone to give you all sorts of Rules. Rituals. Requirements. And maybe a lot of stuff to buy!

But when you asked Jesus into your life, you did not join a religion.

Instead, you began a relationship. With God.

And that's pretty amazing.

You might be wondering, how do you get to know God better?

From a new believer...Jade

Just wanted to say thank you so much for being a part of my new journey.

I love how its called the Spiritual Starter Kit. I always saw myself as more of a spiritual person.

Never thought I'd come to know God like I have. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Jose
from Australia

Until you came along, I was going to do something that I would have regretted for the rest of my life. Thank you. It is amazing the way I see things now, as oppose to the way I did a few weeks ago. If you knew me personally, you would be amazed at the changes in me. Thank you very much.

Morgan - “As a teenager, I feel like there is all this focus on getting saved and following the thousands of rules, but I was never given any guidance after accepting Christ....

For months i just went through the motions....

One night, after once again hopelessly trying to understand, I came across this. Thank you, I never would be where i am in my relationship today if God hadn't led me to this!”
